Re Buffalo letter to Albany, 2/28/67, a copy of which is enclosed for the information of New York.

On 3/7/67, contact was made at Albany with [redacted] New York State Police (NYSP) Headquarters.

[redacted] declined to furnish the results of NYSP investigation of MM members. He asserted that the information relative to the MM membership developed from the search of the MILTON KELLOGG property on 10/30/66, by officers of the New York City Police Department, was furnished to the NYSP by the office of the New York State Attorney General, rather than by the New York City Police Department. Current investigation by the NYSP to develop background concerning individual MM members according to [redacted] is being conducted by the NYSP at the request of the State Attorney General's office.

For this reason, [redacted] considers the information developed by the NYSP to be the property of the State Attorney General rather than the NYSP. He reasoned, therefore, that the NYSP did not have the authority to release this information to the Bureau offices.

He said the inquiry concerning MM members in New York State is under the direction of [redacted] (phonetic), located in New York City. He said if desired, contact could be made with [redacted] to obtain the information developed by the NYSP.

Elsewhere in the state, the investigations are being conducted by the Bureau of Criminal Investigations of the NYSP.

He said it was possible that after the completion of hearings contemplated by [redacted] he would be in a position to furnish the results of the NYSP investigations of individual IM members.

[redacted] was advised this office would not pursue the matter with him further, and that in the event at a subsequent date he felt free to furnish the information requested as set out in referenced letter, he should contact this office.

Information copies are being supplied to offices as set forth as they have received prior communications in this investigation.

Enclosed for Chicago are 2 Xerox copies of LA airtel and LHM dated 3/9/67, reflecting the interview of Dr. BERTHA BRUCE LININGER on 3/6/67.

Enclosed for Los Angeles are 2 Xerox copies of NY airtel to Director, dated 3/10/67.

Enclosed for Denver and Los Angeles are 2 Xerox copies each of NY letter to Director, dated 6/2/59, captioned "Dr. LININGER; INFORMATION CONCERNING", which reflects in part "Dr. LININGER, said to be a Chiropractor from Van Nuys, California". [redacted] played a tape to [redacted] Leavenworth, Kansas, which [redacted] stated had been broadcast over station WHB, Kansas City, on, he thought, 4/27/59. The tape began with extracts from a speech by Director HOOVER and according to [redacted], was so constructed to give the impression to listeners that the Director was introducing the latter material. The first half of the tape, according to [redacted] contained an address by the Director about juvenile delinquency and the second half dealt with questions asked grade school children about their parents' intimate sexual practices.

b7C

Los Angeles airtel to Director, dated 3/2/67, reflects BERTHA LININGER, Apartment 1, 13943 Bessemer Street, Van Nuys, California, had become vitally interested in juvenile delinquency, according to the Managing Editor of "Valley News and Green Sheet", Van Nuys, California. He stated LININGER wrote an article on juvenile delinquency quoting the Director of the FBI verbatim which was to be printed on 4/10/59.

On the basis of this information it appears that BERTHA LININGER from Van Nuys, California, and the Dr. LININGER, subject of NY letter to Director, dated 6/2/59, are identical.

A review of the information furnished by [redacted] on 2/27/67, and the information furnished by Dr. BERTHA BRUCE LININGER on 3/6/67, is contradictory.

[] stated LININGER wanted him to furnish [] which she claimed to represent, to kill NELSON, WINTHROP and LAURENCE ROCKEFELLER.

b6

b7D

Dr. LININGER emphatically denied making any threats concerning the assassination of any member of the ROCKEFELLER family though she stated that in 1963, while vacationing in the East, her friends drove her by an estate which they pointed out to be the ROCKEFELLER estate.

On the basis of [] information, [] [] has been located and interviewed. He has admitted knowing and meeting [] although he has denied knowledge of an assassination plot.

On 8/8/66, [] advised that when questioned by a [] concerning the large contribution by some unknown individual and what kind of "action" this individual wanted, [] stated that it was the kind of action that they "would not be able to go back home after".

[] alleged that during his meeting with Dr. LININGER, he made no definite commitments and LININGER told him he would be contacted later in furtherance of the scheme.

On 1/26-27/67, [redacted] made available to SAS [redacted] and JOHN C. SULLIVAN information contained in the "Minutemen" correspondence file maintained by MILTON A. KELLOGG. The file was seized on 10/30/66 by officers of the [redacted] and [redacted] on the basis of a search warrant issued by [redacted] [redacted] Town of Cicero, New York, for the premises of MILTON A. KELLOGG, 130 Luddington Street, Syracuse, New York.

b7D

The correspondence file was arranged in a numerical sequence by the national "Minutemen" identification number and consisted of manila folders which contained correspondence to or from the member. In many instances, manila folders were in the file which contained no correspondence.

Index cards containing the information which appeared on the exterior of the folders were made out. In each case where a file was empty, this was noted on the index card. The entire contents of the file was photographed. The photographic copy of the index card has been attached to the photographic copies of the correspondence contained in the file with the exception of the folders which were empty. If the folder was empty, the copy of the index card has been attached to a sheet of white bond paper. The "L" or "B" which appear at the lower left hand corner of the index card indicate the information was obtained either from KELLOGG's Luddington Street address or his property at Brewerton, N.Y.

The correspondence was photographed in the sequence in which it appeared in the folder. In most instances, there was no orderly sequence to the manner in which the correspondence was filed.

If this information is disseminated outside the Bureau, [redacted] requested neither he nor the [redacted] be identified as the source of the information. The information should be attributed to a highly confidential source who has provided reliable information in the past.

In this particular issue, as in most issues past, it was stated that the top levels of the U.S. Government are riddled by communists.

Also in this issue it says that the 19 members arrested in Queens were willing to donate the money from the emergency fund supposedly set up for their defense, to the leaders of the Minutemen.. This is a lie.

On 3/23/67 [REDACTED] New York State Police, assigned to the Special Investigations Bureau, (SIB), New York State Attorney Generals Office, 80 Center Street, NYC, advised the writer as follows:

He stated that the SIB has been and is conducting hearings concerning the "Minutemen" under the direction of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The SIB hearing board which consists of 5 - 6 Assistant Attorney Generals has the power to issue Executive Subpoenae and receive sworn testimony. To date the board has heard testimony from all of the known "Minutemen" within the NYC metropolitan area with the exception of three witnesses who have managed to evade being served with a subpoena. In many cases the witnesses have voluntarily appeared and testified before the board, and in all cases where "Minutemen" refused to voluntarily appear subpoenae have been issued. In most cases the witnesses have been cooperative and in many cases their testimony has been quite lengthy.

[REDACTED] stated that the SIB plans to hear testimony from all known "Minutemen" members within the state of NY and has scheduled hearings for the Syracuse, NY area from March 27 - 31, 1967, for which 38 subpoenae have been issued for witnesses to appear before the board.

The results of the investigation to date indicate there are very few "hard core" members of the "Minutemen" in the state of NY. In many cases it has been developed that persons submitted applications for "Minuteman" membership for the purpose of determining the aims and objectives of the organization and after determining this they had no further contact with the organization.

He stated that the immediate intention of the AG is gather sufficient information to institute proceedings to have the "Minutemen" declared an illegal organization in the state of NY.

The AG's Office might also prosecute the witnesses who have appeared before the board and furnished perjured testimony. In addition if the indictments returned by the Queens County Grand Jury against the "Minutemen" arrested by the NYCPD on 10/30/66, are subsequently dismissed the AG is considering prosecuting these individuals. He stated that none of the persons arrested on 10/30/66 have been subpoenaed to testify before the SIB board.

[] stated that in most cases where the "Minutemen" members were interviewed prior to their appearance before the board they were reluctant to furnish information. However, when appearing before the board, in most cases, they answered the questions that were asked.

In relation to the NYO obtaining the results of the information developed by the AG's Office [] stated that technically the information received was sworn secret testimony the revelation of which would be a violation of the New York Penal Code. However, he will attempt to determine who can be contacted by the NYO for the purpose of obtaining the results of the AG's investigation.

He indicated that if the NYO is able to obtain this information it would preclude a duplication of effort on the part of the Bureau as in his opinion it is doubtful that any additional information could be obtained through interview of the "Minutemen" which has not been covered by the questions of the SIB board. [] stated the information gathered is voluminous and would require a considerable amount of time and personnel to review the records.

[] was advised of the Bureau's interest in obtaining this information and advised that he will inquire as to the best approach to make to obtain the information, and will advise the writer accordingly.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY, ALSO KNOWN AS
THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, AMERICAN NAZIS,
THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book, "This Time The World", copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader", a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell, had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that ANP-WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this Party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses".

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third stage, to wit, "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda". The source added that Rockwell had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

On December 27, 1966, the source advised that Rockwell mailed a communication to all members of the ANP entitled, "National Directive from the Commander, Effective 1/1/67". This communication reflected that the formal name of the Party would be "National Socialist White People's Party" and they would still be known as the "American Nazi Party" and "American Nazis" for short.

"MINUTEMEN"

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri, and ROBERT B. DE PUGH, Norborne, Missouri, is the national coordinator. Statements by DE PUGH and literature distributed by the organization in the past indicated its purpose to be the resistance to, and exposure of, the spread of Communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; and resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms.

The Kansas City Star Newspaper, Kansas City, Missouri, has on numerous occasions, carried various articles concerning DE PUGH and the "Minutemen", wherein it was stated that members of the organization participate in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics with machine guns, mortars, grenades, and other firearms.

DE PUGH has publicly stated on numerous occasions that the "Minutemen" as an organization does not buy or store arms or ammunition; however, the individual members of the organization maintain arms and ammunition, which is their constitutional right.

"Minutemen" literature mailed to members in the past has furnished instructions in the use of explosives and has also given details for the making of explosive compounds from such readily accessible ingredients as a common fertilizer, ammonium nitrate.

In May, 1966, a confidential source advised that ROBERT B. DE PUGH, in a recent message to the national coordinators of "Minutemen", announced the "Minutemen" organization was being divided into two separate bodies. One group to be composed directly of members who have been able to maintain complete secrecy of their identity, from both the public and from Government investigative agencies. The second group to be made up of all members who have been publicly identified, or who there is reason to believe have been identified as "Minutemen" members by an agency of the Federal Government.

In announcing the re-organization, DE PUGH stated that a complete resistance movement involving total resistance must involve not only guerrilla warfare and not only resistance warfare, but that it must involve psychological and political warfare as well.

DE PUGH stated that what he was proposing and trying to effect was to build a political party that as such would have legal immunity, which would serve as a communications network for patriots that have other interests, and among whose members these other patriots can maintain their secrecy of identity. All future correspondence and communications on the national level will be done in the name of the Patriotic Party. DE PUGH also advised that if ever called to court, as he expected to be in the future, he was going to state that as far as the national organization is concerned, the "Minutemen" had ceased to exist.

DE PUGH, in the announcement, continued to the effect there is no reason why at some future date, when the environment is more conducive to military action, that the Patriotic Party cannot be used once again to pull together various local organizations into one national organization. By acting both as a front and as a means of coordination, the Patriotic Party can be invaluable in the building of a future resistance movement.

WE PRAY OH LORD:

THAT WE MIGHT BE GIVEN FAITH, SO THAT WE ARE UNWAVERING IN OUR DEVOTION TO OUR CONVICTIONS; THAT WE MIGHT CONTINUE TO HOPE, IN TOTAL VICTORY; THAT WE MIGHT NOT LOSE THE CHARITY, THAT IS SO NECESSARY FOR ONE'S SALVATION, BECAUSE OF THE BITTERNESS WE FEEL TOWARD THOSE WHO WOULD DESTROY OUR REPUBLIC, REALIZING FULL WELL THAT SACRIFICE FOR THIS GOD LOVING NATION IS ONE FORM OF THAT CHARITY; THAT WE BE GIVEN FORTITUDE, SO THAT "WE WILL NEVER SURRENDER."

AND WE PRAY, OH LORD, THAT WE MIGHT NEVER FIND ONE OF OUR FELLOWS WANTING OF ANYONE OF THESE VIRTUES.

[REDACTED] She further stated that she does not recall the name of any individual with whom she came in contact during her brief visit in Denver in July and August, 1966.

She emphatically denied making any threat concerning the assassination of any member of the [REDACTED] family. She stated that during 1963, while vacationing in the east, her friends drove her by an estate which they pointed out to be the Rockefeller estate. She said she did not even recall whether the estate was in New York or New Jersey.

Lininger stated she may not agree with everything the Rockefeller family stands for politically, but she does not condone the theory that anyone should be assassinated for their personal beliefs or for any other reason.

Lininger stated her conversations in Denver were limited to speaking with the taxicab drivers she utilized and one lady guest at the hotel, who stopped in her room for a few moments. She stated she was feeling too poorly from her nervous condition to want to talk to anyone. She advised that on one occasion she made a trip to a chiropractor's office for treatment while in Denver but she could not recall the name of the doctor.

Lininger stated she was a long-time student of the Constitution of the United States and a loyal, patriotic American. When asked if she had ever done any writing concerning the Constitution, she answered in the affirmative. She stated she wrote a book entitled "Constitution Be Damned" under the name of Dr. B. Bruce. She explained that her full name is Bertha Bruce Lininger and she chose to author the book under that name.

When asked if she had attended a convention of the Constitution Party of the United States in Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1963, she stated she does not recall ever having attended any function of that party. She said she has stopped by Indianapolis in the past during her travels.

When asked if she was personally acquainted with George Lincoln Rockwell, self-styled commander of the ANP, she stated she does not personally know him but has seen him in a group. When further asked if she supported his announced program against Negroes and Jews, she stated she believed in the equal rights of everyone under "We the people" in the Constitution of the United States and that she bore no hatred for anyone.

Lininger concluded by stating she had no idea why her name had ever been associated with a threat against the [redacted] family as she has never been part of a conspiracy to do harm to anyone.

[redacted] stated that he did not discuss Lininger's political philosophy with her but only her health programs. He stated that in his opinion she was in perfect physical condition, regardless of her advanced age, and she did not appear to be suffering from any acute illness.

[redacted] advised he learned from his secretary that while Lininger was waiting to be treated on August 1, 1966, Lininger had a discussion of some kind with a woman who was waiting for her husband's treatment to be completed. [redacted] advised that Lininger was discussing something like the great wealth in the country and some financial institution in the United States which controls everything. On March 24, 1967, [redacted] Golden, Colorado, advised that around the first part of August, 1966, she went with her husband to the [redacted] Denver. While her husband was being treated by [redacted] had occasion to converse extensively with an elderly woman who was sitting next to her in the waiting room. This woman commented that she lived in a trailer house somewhere in California.

[redacted] was shown a California driver's license photo of Bertha Bruce Lininger taken February 17, 1966, and she positively identified the woman in the photograph as being identical to the above-mentioned elderly woman.

[redacted] advised that Lininger talked extensively about politics and related matters but she has only a vague recollection of what she said. [redacted] does recall Lininger mentioning Life magazine and the fact that she believed the communists were publishing it because of the numerous slanted articles concerning Negroes. [redacted] stated that Lininger talked extensively about the Negro problem in the United States and that she was opposed to Negro riots and demonstrations.

Lininger was also critical of the United States Government because she felt that the Government showed great favoritism toward the Negroes in the United States and thus indirectly encouraged riots and demonstrations. At one point Lininger made the statement, "Believe me, I know what I am talking about; I have the facts."

[redacted] stated she could not recall whether or not Lininger talked about any member of the Rockefeller family because she touched on so many political subjects. According to [redacted] Lininger gave her the name and address of a man and woman to whom she could write to obtain books and pamphlets concerning the different political problems touched on but [redacted] did not retain these names and addresses, although she believed they lived somewhere in the eastern United States.

"MINUTEMEN"

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri, and ROBERT B. DE PUGH, Norborne, Missouri, is the national coordinator. Statements by DE PUGH and literature distributed by the organization in the past indicated its purpose to be the resistance to, and exposure of, the spread of communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; and resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms.

The Kansas City Star Newspaper, Kansas City, Missouri, has on numerous occasions, carried various articles concerning DE PUGH and the "Minutemen", wherein it was stated that members of the organization participate in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics with machine guns, mortars, grenades and other firearms.

DE PUGH has publicly stated on numerous occasions that the "Minutemen" as an organization does not buy or store arms or ammunition; however, the individual members of the organization maintain arms and ammunition, which is their constitutional right.

"Minutemen" literature mailed to members in the past has furnished instructions in the use of explosives and has also given details for the making of explosive compounds from such readily accessible ingredients as a common fertilizer, ammonium nitrate.

In May, 1966, a confidential source advised that ROBERT B. DE PUGH, in a recent message to the national coordinators of "Minutemen," announced the "Minutemen" organization was being divided into two separate bodies. One group was to be composed directly of members who have been able to maintain complete secrecy of their identity, from both the public and from Government investigative agencies. The second group was to be made up of all members who have been publicly identified, or who there is reason to believe have been identified as "Minutemen" members by an agency of the Federal Government.

In announcing the reorganization, DE PUGH stated that a complete resistance movement involving total resistance, must involve not only guerrilla warfare and not only resistance warfare, but that it must involve psychological and political warfare as well.

DE PUGH stated that what he was proposing and trying to effect was to build a political party that as such would have legal immunity, which would serve as a communications network for patriots that have other interests, and among whose members these other patriots can maintain their secrecy of identity. All future correspondence and communications on the national level will be done in the name of the Patriotic Party. DE PUGH also advised that if ever called to court, as he expected to be in the future, he was going to state that as far as the national organization is concerned, the "Minutemen" had ceased to exist.

DE PUGH, in the announcement, continued to the effect there is no reason why at some future date, when the environment is more conducive to military action, that the Patriotic Party cannot be used once again to pull together various local organizations into one national organization. By acting both as a front and as a means of coordination, the Patriotic Party can be invaluable in the building of a future resistance movement.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY,
ALSO KNOWN AS
THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, AMERICAN NAZIS,
THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book, "This Time The World", copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader", a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell, on the previous day, had again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that ANP-WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1956, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this Party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual", an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

On August 19, 1966, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell, presently believes that he has completed the first two phases in his struggle for power and is well into the third state, to-wit: "the organizing of the people who have been converted to our propaganda". The source added that Rockwell had previously believed that he would be elected Governor of Virginia in November, 1965, and when defeated, he made the statement that he was not ready for stage four.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On December 27, 1966, the source advised that Rockwell mailed a communication to all members of the ANP entitled, "National Directive from the Commander, Effective 1/1/67." This communication reflected that the formal name of the Party would be "National Socialist White People's Party" and they would still be known as the "American Nazi Party" and "American Nazis" for short.

It is difficult for the Denver Division to draw conclusions as to whether or not a conspiracy actually exists to assassinate the three ROCKEFELLER brothers due to the fact that we are dealing with statements made by [redacted] of the Colorado Minutemen, who in the past has made exaggerated and false statements. The central problem appears to be the veracity of [redacted] as opposed to BERTHA BRUCE LININGER. It should be noted that it appears the substantial information furnished by [redacted] has been verified through investigation.

It will be further noted that LININGER was interviewed on 3/6/67, at which time she said she had to use a wheelchair when arriving and departing from the sanitarium in Denver and received assistance at the Mayflower Hotel in Denver. LININGER further advised that her conversations in Denver were limited to speaking with the taxicab drivers she utilized and one lady guest at the hotel who stopped in her room for a few moments. She stated she was feeling too poorly from her nervous condition to want to talk to anyone. It will be noted in the enclosed LHM, these facts have been proved to be false. Both [redacted] and [redacted] attest to the fact that she was not in poor health and did discuss political matters in the office of [redacted]

In view of the fact that it is apparent all logical investigation has been conducted by the Denver Division in this matter, no further investigation will be conducted by Denver, UACB.

(INTERNAL SECURITY)

Synopsis:

On 12/13/66, search of property of MILTON A. KELLOGG at Brewerton and Syracuse, New York, disclosed "Minutemen" applications for 12 persons in Buffalo Division. "Minutemen" records also disclosed number of such persons inactive, but as of 6/23/66, 11 persons in Buffalo Division listed as active.

-P-

Details:

This investigation is predicated upon information that members of the "Minutemen" organization exist in this Division.

On December 13, 1966, BU T-1 made available applications relating to the "Minutemen" organization which were discovered during a search conducted by law enforcement officers of MILTON A. KELLOGG's property at Brewerton and Syracuse, New York, on October 30, 1966.

A characterization of "Minutemen" is contained in the appendix to this report.

b6

In December, 1966, BU T-1 stated that MILTON A. KELLOGG is regarded as the Eastern Regional Coordinator of the "Minutemen."

The "Minutemen" applications refer to the following persons:

[redacted]

BU 100-16587

On December 13, 1966, BU T-1 also furnished a list containing various "Minutemen" bands," which was obtained from the premises of MILTON A. KELLOGG. This list consisted of "Minutemen" membership numbers listed under the captions "Active Members N.Y. State," "INDV Members," and "Inactive Members N.Y. Misc States." The list bore the notation at the top "9963 all other sheets void before this date. . . 6-23-66." BU T-1 observed that 9963 is MILTON A. KELLOGG's "Minutemen" number.

It was the opinion of BU T-1 that the portion of the list marked "INDV Members" apparently refers to "Minutemen" members who are not affiliated with any "Minutemen" band or similar group. "Inactive" apparently refers to persons who were at one time active in the organization, but who as of June 23, 1966, were no longer active. This second list furnished by BU T-1 sets forth the names of persons who submit applications for "Minutemen" membership and who reside in the Buffalo Division. The (I) appearing in parenthesis after the name indicates that, according to KELLOGG's records, dated 6/23/66, the member was classified as "Inactive."

This list also contained the following information under the caption "Active Members N.Y. State--Indv Members." BU T-1 expressed the opinion that this information included persons who were not in a specific band:

[] stated that the persons who were arrested by the [] on 10/30/66, have not been requested to appear before the hearing board. He stated that in many cases it has been developed that persons submitted applications for "Minuteman" membership for the purpose of determining the aims and objectives of the organization, after which they had no further contact with the organization. The results of the investigation to date indicate there are very few "hard core" members of the "Minuteman" in the State of New York. b6 b7C b7D

[] In relation to obtaining the results of the hearings, [] stated that technically the information received was sworn secret testimony, the revelation of which would be a violation of the New York Penal Code.

He stated the immediate intention of the Attorney General's Office is to gather sufficient information to institute proceedings declaring the "Minutemen" an illegal organization within the state of New York.

On 4/19/67, [] advised that the [] had sent notices to all rifle clubs in New York State to appear before the hearing board with their membership records. A second letter reminding the request was sent to the rifle clubs as a result of pressure allegedly exerted by the National Rifle Association (NRA) against this action. b6 b7C b7D

On 4/28/67, [] stated the Attorney General's Office is still hearing testimony and the board is scheduled to conduct hearings in Buffalo beginning 5/9/67, after which hearings will be held in Rochester. The hearings will be held in the State Office Buildings in the respective cities.

On 5/1/67, [] furnished a copy of the form which will be used to synopsize the testimony of the witnesses who appeared before the hearing board. He stated this form has been prepared and it is the intention at this time to complete the form; however, he stated other things have been planned which were subsequently cancelled and this could happen in the case of the forms. He advised against making any contact with the Attorney General's Office to obtain the results of their investigation at this time as in his opinion the office is politically oriented and an official inquiry by the Bureau requesting the results of their investigation could possibly embarrass the Bureau. He stated that if and when the hearings currently being b6 b7C b7D conducted and concluded, it is currently contemplated that public hearings will be held. He indicated that in view of the Bureau's interest in this matter, he will attempt to furnish copies of the attached forms when they have been completed.

Minutemen Undergo Reorganization as DePugh 'Returns'

By Harry Jones, Jr.
(A Member of The Star's Staff)

The announced resignation of Robert Bolivar DePugh from the militant, right-wing Minutemen organization which he founded in 1960 did not last very long—if, in fact, it ever actually occurred.

Nor has the Minutemen organization, whose leadership has fallen under attack by the federal government, given up its efforts to protect the United States from what it regards as the "Socialist-Communist conspiracy" now in control of the federal government.

Efforts are now under way to reorganize the Minutemen into numerous, small, underground "resistance networks" over the country.

DePugh, of Norborne, Mo., now says that he decided a few weeks ago to go back on the Minutemen's now 8-member "executive council," placing him back in the position of its only publicly identifiable member.

The fact that this "executive council" membership has remained such a closely guarded secret the last six and a half years has given rise to speculation that it very likely exists only in DePugh's rhetoric.

DePugh currently is under a 4-year sentence to federal prison but is free on bond while he appeals his conviction to the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Louis. A hearing on his appeal is not expected now until fall.

Shortly after he was sentenced in U. S. District court here by Judge Elmo B. Hunter, DePugh announced that he was mailing all Minutemen members a letter announcing his resignation from the Minutemen. He had gone by the title of "national co-ordinator" as well as "executive council" member until then.

"For an organization to have a 'known' leader has some morale value to its members,"

he wrote last January "but it is also a considerable handicap to underground operations. When the habits and ballgame are identified, it becomes too well known it is then possible for the enemies of that organization to predict its future activities."

He also wrote members last January that the Minutemen henceforth must become "entirely clandestine in their future operations."

Since then, copies of a bulletin sent Minutemen members by the "executive council" have begun to show up in various parts of the country, outlining in general terms the nature of the Minutemen's "complete reorganization" now understood to be under way.

Shown a copy of one of these letters last week, DePugh confirmed it had been mailed members and was authentic.

The letter reviews how the Minutemen first were organized into "bands" made up of members who lived close to one another so they could form quickly into "combat units" when necessary. Next came the formation of "dispersed teams," the bulletin said, consisting of members from a wider geographical area.

"We are now beginning the next step in this process," the letter said, "by the organization of 'Resistance Networks.' These networks are a natural result of our increased need for still greater dispersion and security."

Each "network" is to be headed by a "director," the bulletin states, each of whom is to be appointed by the executive council. Each director is to be assigned a few other Minutemen members to act as his assistants. This small group then is to be supplied the names of Minutemen sympathizers and other known conservatives with whom they can work on a "friendship basis."

"A network is one real good member," DePugh said after looking over the bulletin. "He may be given from three to 10 or 15 ordinary members to work with. . . There are more than 1,000 networks. I don't know the exact number. Virtually every good member has been made a network director."

Minutemen in New York and the New England states have not reorganized in this manner yet, DePugh said, nor has Troy Houghton, West Coast co-ordinator of the Minutemen, adopted the new concept either. Houghton faces three years in prison, pending appeal, in the same national firearms act case in which DePugh was convicted.

The Minutemen's penchant for potential violence appears not to have diminished, judging by the bulletin.

"In a network of this kind," the bulletin states, "almost anyone can be of value. An average housewife may provide a secure hiding place—either for people or equipment. ("Equipment" is not defined.) A service station worker may pass a message on from one customer to another. An executive in the telephone company may obtain 'silent' numbers for the intelligence group.

"A wholesaler of explosives might be hesitant to sell dynamite to a member of the Minutemen but would gladly pass a few sticks on to a fellow lodge member who ran into some rocks while digging a septic tank."

Members are urged to be patient while waiting for personal contact to be made with them by their new "network director."

The bulletin also assigns each recipient a "Network Number," replacing the old Minutemen numbers members used to have. (DePugh was No. 551.)

While waiting for contact to be made, members are told to build their own "sub-network" and make such preparations as:

○ "Make certain that your own weapons, ammunition, files and similar material are safely hidden. . .

○ "Obtain extra sets of identification papers both in your own name and in fictitious names, or in the name of some other person. . .

○ "Make continuous effort to learn the identity of communists and communist-sympathizers in your area. . .

○ "Obtain and stockpile types of materials needed in resistance warfare.

"Select a ~~community~~ in keeping with your own talents that would be of value to a resistance movement—first aid, electronics, surveillance, lock picking, interrogation, photography, explosives, gunsmithing, etc. etc.—and become as expert as possible..."

The bulletin ends on this note:

"To the restoration of our Constitutional Republic, to the defense of individual freedom and to the preservation of our American heritage, we pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

In explaining his reasons for returning to an acknowledged position of leadership in the Minutemen, DePugh said there had been some internal dissension following his resignation and the council had asked him to return.

"I found it extremely difficult to cut my ties," he said. "Besides, I'm not completely comfortable in the Patriotic party."

He has remained chairman of the Patriotic party, which he founded in Independence last July 4 with a national convention attended by about 400 persons.

He said he never had "a lot of faith" in the party, but still intends to keep trying with it. Its second national convention is scheduled for July 2, 3 and 4 in Independence, he said.

The file was seized by officers of the [redacted] on 10/30/66, while executing a search warrant issued for KELLOGG's residence.

The correspondence file consisted of manila folders arranged numerically by the national "Minutemen" membership identification number. In many instances, the folders contained no correspondence in which case the information contained on the exterior of the folder has been set forth on an enclosure attached hereto. Index cards were prepared setting forth the information on the exterior of the manila folders. The photographic copy of the index card has been attached to the photographs of the correspondence. The "L" or "B" appearing on the index card indicates if the information was obtained from KELLOGG's Luddington Street residence or his Brewerton, New York property.

The correspondence was photographed in the sequence in which it appeared in the folder. However, there was no orderly sequence in which the correspondence was filed.

If this information is disseminated outside the Bureau, the source should be protected and characterized as having furnished reliable information in the past. [redacted] requested that neither he nor the [redacted] be identified as the source of the information.

b6
b7D

Enclosed for the Bureau and each receiving office are two copies each of three indexes prepared by the NYO to aid in the identification of members mentioned in the correspondence. Index #1 is a numerical index by national "Minutemen" membership identification number. Index #2 is a numerical index by regional numbers assigned by MILTON A. KELLOGG. Index #3 is an alphabetical index by aliases used by members.

All offices are requested to refer to the alphabetical index previously furnished with NY airtel to Bureau, dated 11/29/66, for the complete address of persons mentioned herein.

An index card file which contained notations reflecting "Minutemen" literature or supplies sent the members and, in some cases, descriptive data of the member was also seized. Xerox copies of the cards have been attached to the other material pertaining to the member; however, all members were not included in the file.

NY 62-12699

Additional information from the files maintained by MILTON A. KELLOGG will be sent to Albany under separate cover.

It should be noted by all receiving offices that the spelling of names and addresses set forth in the Indexes attached hereto are subject to error as they were extracted from the records of KELLOGG some of which were illegible.

The microfilm containing the information from the correspondence file maintained by KELLOGG is being maintained in NY (62-12699)-1B.

On this date, a letter was received from the Patriotic Party. I contained a copy of the Newsletter. It said that the annual convention would be held again this year in Kansas City, Mo., on July 2, 3, & 4. It says that the convention will truly mark the return of the two party system in this country. The two parties referred to are the Socialist Party and the Patriotic Party. In the Socialist Party are included the Democratic and Republican Parties. The Patriotic Party is now combined with the United Front against Communism.

Along with the announcement of the convention they ask for contributions for DE PUGH's defense fund. They say that they need 10,000.00 dollars. There is also a ballot included with the letter. They ask for the nomination for President and Vice-president. They also ask for a contribution to the election fund.

May 3, 1967

On this date a letter was received from the Minutemen. This letter was mailed in the Bronx. It gave "inside information" that there will be in September or October, a raid on ALL premises now occupied by any one known to be in a right wing organization. These raids will be conducted under the aegis of search warrants. All weapons and guns even though legal, will be confiscated. All members are told to hide all weapons immediately.

All members are told to participate in the psychological war now going on with the enemy. All members are told to paint cross-hairs on buildings walls and other places that get any notice from the public. This is to warn the enemy that they are being watched and when the time comes they will be dealt with.

ADMINISTRATIVE

The Buffalo Office is attempting to develop a reliable, cooperative source who either has or will have connections with the "Minutemen" so that the actual existence of a "Minutemen" organization in this Division might be resolved.

Information appearing in instant report supplements that contained in referenced report.

Concerning referenced Bureau airtel to Buffalo, dated 5/10/67, the Buffalo Office will submit, by 6/30/67, a report including results of other investigation in this matter since 12/30/66. Appropriate comments will be made at that time as to the results of attempts to place an informant within the "Minutemen" organization.

[redacted] was interviewed by SA [redacted] on 5/2/67, at which time he did not exhibit a fully cooperative attitude. It is felt he possessed other information concerning the organization "Minutemen," however, seemed reticent to make a full disclosure of the information he must likely possess.

b7C

[redacted] advised he has received a subpoena to appear before some State Committee, not further identified, in the State Building, Court Street, Buffalo, New York, on 5/9/67, when he will be asked questions about the "Minutemen." [redacted] said he might lose his job as a result of this bad publicity and he feels he will certainly be continually bothered by the Communists in the area.

[redacted] said he is on the verge of leaving the area for remote parts of the United States so he can start a new life.

This report is classified ~~"Confidential"~~ because the unauthorized disclosure of information from BU T-1 could reasonably result in the identification of a source of continuing value and compromise his future effectiveness.

Details:

This investigation was predicated upon receipt of information that members of the "Minutemen" organization exist in this Division.

On December 13, 1966, BU T-1 made available applications relating to the "Minutemen" organization, which were []

b7D

[] on the property of MILTON A. KELLOGG at Brewerton and Syracuse, New York, on October 30, 1966.

A characterization of the "Minutemen" is contained in the Appendix Section of this report.

In December 1966, BU T-1 stated MILTON A. KELLOGG is regarded as the Eastern Regional Coordinator of the "Minutemen."

Among the list of persons who had submitted applications for "Minutemen" was [redacted]. Another list in KELLOGG's possession purporting to reflect "Minutemen" who were "active" as of June 23, 1966 also contained the name of [redacted].

On May 2, 1967, [redacted] of [redacted] Town of Amherst, New York, voluntarily appeared at the Buffalo Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, at which time he, at first, denied membership in the "Minutemen," but subsequently admitted membership. [redacted] said he has held no past leadership position in the "Minutemen" and holds no such position at this time.

[redacted] said the United States Government has no business investigating the "Minutemen" but instead should devote all of its energies toward looking into the menace of Communism, which someday will take over the United States. He stated he only desires to oppose Communism, and, furthermore, said he will always act to prevent a Communist takeover of the United States.

[redacted] said in the past he has let a "Minutemen" group make use of his farm for firearms practice. He stated, however, that he has only permitted legal weapons to be used for such practice sessions and no handguns were permitted. He said he would not even allow a handgun on his premises, except if someone had a permit; but, even then, no one appeared with a handgun. [redacted] emphasized that this group conducted no field training, had no field exercises, did not practice combat techniques, or use of explosives, etc.

[redacted] said that because he is the most poorly educated "of all the others," he hardly would have been chosen as a leader. He felt he may have been regarded as a leader by some simply because he allowed the group to use his farm for firearms practice.

b7C

[redacted] admitted he is acquainted with [redacted]
[redacted]

and [redacted] and has met with them in the past, although he has seen [redacted] on only one occasion.

[redacted] said the above group is poorly organized and met mainly to talk about the evils of Communism and the probability of a Communist takeover of the United States. He said when they met in the past, the meetings were mostly "bull" sessions.

[redacted] advised he might have been regarded as a "Minutemen" leader in the past because he had let the group make use of his farm for firearms practice. He said weapons, such as rifles and shotguns, were used for these practice sessions on his farm.

[redacted] said he is acquainted with MILTON KELLOGG of Brewerton, New York; however, he indicated he has met him perhaps only once.

[redacted] said he was unhappy about the state of the "Minutemen" and stated they had a nice, friendly, little group in Buffalo which occasionally met until the arrest of the National Leader, ROBERT DE PUGH, after which the group fell apart. He said when the arrest of the "Minutemen" occurred during the fall of 1966 in connection with the alleged plots to bomb Communist camps, further harm was reflected on the morale of the local group and also on the name of the National organization. In [redacted] words, "The guys around New York City sure ruined everything."

SUBJECT: "MINUTEMEN"
Information Concerning
(Internal Security)

On 4/29/67, [redacted] (protect by request), [redacted] NY, NY, voluntarily furnished the following information to SA [redacted] because in his opinion his prior relationship with [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] (subject of NYfile 100-159257), posed a potential threat to his life.

b6
b7C

By June 1966, [redacted] had been in the U.S. Army Reserve, [redacted] Staten Island, NY, for approximately six months. During this time [redacted] who were also members of the Reserve Unit, had conversations with [redacted] who on various occasions made his conservative political beliefs known.

During the last week of June 1966 [redacted] called [redacted] to ask his assistance in filling out Army Jump School papers. [redacted] agreed to help [redacted] and on Tuesday or Wednesday arrived at [redacted] house with [redacted] (subject of NYfile 100-159247), in [redacted] blue "beat up" station wagon. [redacted] had recently injured [redacted] and was having difficulty getting around. At that time [redacted] was residing at the residence of his parents in the Bronx, NY.

b6
b7C

[redacted] then drove to the home of [redacted] who was sitting at the dining room table when they arrived reading a book entitled "Minutemen". [redacted] commented that the "Minutemen" are good patriotic people, but did not comment further about the organization.

[redacted] then departed [redacted] house and drove to [redacted] filled out the Army Jump School papers.

[redacted] picked up [redacted] on Thursday morning and drove back to his house [redacted] where they spent the day. [redacted] met [redacted] LNU (probably [redacted], at [redacted] house, who at the time of their arrival was playing patriotic music which [redacted] stated was out of place as he had previously talked to [redacted]
